

Contents

Series Editor's Preface	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction	1
 PART I HABERMAS'S UNDERSTANDING OF LAW
1 Law in the Theory of Communicative Action	7
2 Law in Between Facts and Norms	33
3 Law in the Postnational Constellation	53
 PART II HART'S CONCEPT OF LAW RECONSIDERED
4 Situating the Debate Between Habermas and Hart	79
5 Primary Rules of Obligation	87
6 Establishing Institutions	109
7 The Variety of Legal Systems	129
8 Relations Between Legal Systems	141
 PART III LAW IN A TRANSNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE
9 The Quest for Normative Foundations	169
10 Conceiving General Jurisprudence	181
Bibliography	205
Index	221