

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abbreviations .....	xi
List of Tables, Graphs and Photographs .....	xv
Introduction .....	1
Chapter 1
People without history .....	5
1.1 Here there are lions .....	5
1.2 Far away, sick and invisible .....	8
1.3 A people without history .....	14
1.4 The research question .....	19
1.5 Thesis and argument .....	21
1.6 Methodology .....	23
Chapter 2
The emergence of the Slovak political nation, 1848-1948 .....	25
2.1 Slovak identity: from myths to facts .....	25
2.2 Slovaks from the Ausgleich to the arrival of Communism .....	31
2.3 The Slovak political tradition and the building of a political nation .....	40
Chapter 3
Slovak society and politics in communist Czechoslovakia, 1948-1989 .....	55
3.1 From a people's democracy to the socialist federation, 1948-1968 .....	55
3.2 From 'normalization' to perestroika , 1969-1989 .....	69
Chapter 4
Political parties, institutions and bi-national conflict in post-communist Czechoslovakia, 1990-1992 .....	83
4.1 The rise of political parties and free parliamentary elections .....	83
4.2 The war of the intellectuals and a resurrection of the past .....	91
4.3 The minority question in post-communist Slovakia and the Law on Competences .....	97
4.4 "Let's govern ourselves" versus "Let them go:" the story of two nationalisms .....	107
4.5 Famous last words that never were .....	116

Chapter 5

Political parties and institutions in the independent Slovak Republic .....	121
5.1 Starting over: on the desert, but at the oasis .....	121
5.2 The founding fathers break away .....	132
5.3 Westward-ho! Or going our own way? .....	139
5.4 Slovakia's five years of independence: a mixed picture .....	151

Chapter 6

The third Mečiar government and Slovak society: The change of 1998 .....	155
6.1 Civil society in Slovakia and its 'Return to Europe' .....	155
6.2 Forming the opposition: the rise of the non-governmental sector .....	160
6.3 Election campaigns .....	167
6.4 The 1998 parliamentary elections and the change in government .....	176
6.5 Mečiarism without the -ism .....	181

Chapter 7

Political parties, institutions and society during the Dzurinda governments:

The accession, 1998-2004 .....	189
7.1 Back on track .....	189
7.2 The fragmentation of the coalition and the rise of new political parties .....	198
7.3 The Dzurinda government and society in the 2002 parliamentary elections: un mariage arrangé .....	205
7.4 The accession .....	211
7.5 Mobilis in mobile .....	219

Chapter 8

Post-communist transformation of Slovakia from historical perspective:

An assessment .....	227
8.1 Seeming and being: myths in the history of East and West .....	227
8.2 Seeming and being in Slovak history as a part of the history of Czechoslovakia and Hungary .....	234
8.3 The myth of a sudden awakening of Slovak society in the 1998 parliamentary elections .....	241
Conclusion .....	251
Chronology .....	255
Bibliography .....	259

Appendices .....289
    Questionnaire .....289
    Tables 7-10 .....293
    Graphs 1-4 .....297
    Photographs .....301