

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction
Giuseppe Gazzola	vii
Visual Rhetoric and Graphic Prosody in Parole in Libertà and Tavole Parolibere: A Case Study of L'Italia Futurista (1916-18)
Giovanni Bove	11
"But I like the futurists. Only I don't believe in them."
Nick Ceramella	20
Sant'Elia's Invisible Cities
Kevin Clouter	47
Futurism and the Abjection of the Feminine
Ursula J. Fanning	53
Palazzeschi e il Futurismo Fiorentino: appunti e precisazioni
Luigi Fontanella	65
Prolegomena on a New Edition of Marinetti's Versi e prose
Giuseppe Gazzola	76
Filippo Tommaso Marinetti: The Artist and his Politics
Ernest Ialongo	86
The Machine as the Rebirth of Humankind: Marinetti and First Futurism
Ernesto Livorni	100
Beyond Matter: Futurism and Occultist Practices
Mario Moroni	117
Invention, Industry and the Superpower: the Artificial Human Being and its Consequences for the 'Future'
Deirdre O'Grady	125

Wireless Imagination
Zabet Patterson	135
Regaining Futurism: Russian Theater 2003-2005
Nicholas Rzhevsky	142
Chronophotography and Cinematography to Photodynamism and Chromatic Music: Bergson's Critique of Photography and the Birth of the Futurist Motion Picture, 1910-1912
Andrew V. Uroskie	147
Futurist Theater: Theories, Experiments, Legacy
Antonella Valoroso	158
Sant'Elia on the Thames: London's Docklands as Futurist Developments
Ricarda Vidal	176
Index
Lois Craft	187
Contributors	197