

CONTENTS

List of Figures.....	vii
Introduction.....	1
I. Epistolary Theory.....	17
Introduction.....	17
Etiquette books and letter-writing manuals as a source.....	18
Epistolary theory.....	22
Epistolary theory in practice.....	32
Famous letter-writers as models.....	43
Conclusion.....	51
II. Everyday correspondence.....	55
Introduction.....	55
Writing materials and a place to write.....	56
Post.....	62
Languages.....	67
Salutation, signature and postscript.....	77
‘Le stile c’est l’homme’ – style.....	84
Themes and taboos.....	91
Receiving a letter.....	107
Conclusion.....	109
III. Children’s letters.....	113
Introduction.....	113
Learning to write letters.....	115
Confidentiality, naturalness and individuality.....	125
Character building.....	140
Conclusion.....	156
IV. Adolescents’ letters.....	158
Introduction.....	158
From schoolboy to student.....	160
Adolescents’ letters and gender.....	178
Engagement.....	190
Conclusion.....	211

V. Ceremonial correspondence.....	213
Introduction	213
Means of communication and customs	214
The content of ceremonial letters	225
The function of ceremonial correspondence	239
Cult of sincerity.....	243
Conclusion.....	250
Conclusion	252
Appendices	259
Bibliography	267
Index	279