

List of Contents

Acknowledgements	3
List of Figures	4
List of Tables	4
Abbreviations	5
CHAPTER I: INTRODUCTION: OVERVIEW ABOUT INTERNAL EXCHANGE AND EGYPTIAN ECONOMY
I. Preliminary considerations	11
Redistributive state and village communities	11
Regional and local settings	12
Trade/ Exchange and merchants	14
Market	16
Money and prices	16
II. Methodological approaches	17
Analysis and interpretation of sources	17
CHAPTER II: THEORETICAL APPROACHES TO EGYPTIAN ECONOMY
1. Introduction	23
2. Karl Polanyi's theory	23
Scope and limits of his theory	24
A reconsideration of redistribution concept	25
Polanyi: trade, money and market	25
Polanyi's influence on Egyptological studies (a)	27
3. Warburton Keynesian explanation (b)	28
4. A combined Redistribution and Market exchange (c)	28
5. Exchange in New Kingdom Egypt. An approach according to the economy theory	29
CHAPTER III: LOCAL MARKET
1. Introduction	33
2. The market concept as exchange context	33
3. Background of market scenes in Old and Middle Kingdom	34
4. Representations of exchanging sites in New Kingdom tombs	37
5. References about market in New Kingdom Texts	44
6. Conclusions	48
CHAPTER IV: ECONOMIC TRANSACTIONS OF MOVABLE GOODS IN THEBES
1. Introduction	53
2. Metals as means of exchange	53
3. Goods circulation in Deir el-Medina	56
Transactions with animals (oxen, bulls, cows, donkeys)	57
Transactions with wooden objects (beds, doors, seats, statues)	61
Transactions with funerary objects (sarcophagi, coffins, ushabtis, incense, pieces of clothing, flowers)	62
Transaction through other goods (sandals, metallic vessels, fat, textile products)	63
4. Illegal circulation of goods	64
5. Pseudo-private practices in Thebes during Ramesside period	66
CHAPTER V: THE šwtyw
1. Introduction	71
2. šwty as lender	71
3. The šwty being part of the state	75
4. šwtyw and tomb thieves	77
5. šwtyw and foreign trade	78

6. Social status of šwty	79
7. Final comments.....	81
 CHAPTER VI: LAND PROPERTY/POSSESSIONS. LAND EXCHANGE
1. Introduction	85
2. Individual forms of land possession	85
Private properties from donations/transference	86
Possession of plots according to Wilbour Papyrus	88
nmḥw : a social status or/and private owners?	89
3. The land property and its inheritance.....	90
4. Small properties in Deir el-Medina.....	93
5. Land Sale in New Kingdom Egypt.....	94
 CHAPTER VII: SLAVES AS GOODS
1. Introduction	99
2. Egyptian slave: a diffuse category	99
From lexicographical records	99
Another way of subjecting?	100
3. Types and forms of slavery in New Kingdom Egypt	100
Temple slaves	101
Pharaoh slaves in Deir el-Medina.....	102
Slaves as individual property.....	102
Slaves' emancipation.....	104
4. Slaves trade.....	104
5. Value of slaves.....	105
6. hrw n b3k/ḥm : Slave working days	106
7. Conclusions	108
 FINAL REMARKS	 111
 INDEX OF SOURCES.....	 117
 BIBLIOGRAPHY	 127