

Contents

.....

List of contributors	page vii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: Constructing drugs and addiction Suzanne Fraser and David Moore	1
Part 1: Drug use as social and cultural practice
1 The social life of smokes : Processes of exchange in a heroin marketplace Robyn Dwyer	19
2 Party animals: The significance of drug practices in the materialisation of urban gay identity Kane Race	35
3 Pleasure and pain: Representations of illegal drug consumption, addiction and trafficking in music, film and video Susan Boyd	57
4 The ontological politics of knowledge production: Qualitative research in the multidisciplinary drug field David Moore	73
Part 2: Drugs, health and the medicalisation of addiction
5 Beyond the 'potsherd': The role of injecting drug use-related stigma in shaping hepatitis C Suzanne Fraser	91
6 Drugs that work: Pharmaceuticals and performance self-management Helen Keane	106

7	From 'magic bullets' to medical maintenance: The changing meanings of medical approaches to drug use in US drug policy Nancy D. Campbell	122
8	Pharmacotherapy as social policy, or, the public and private worlds of welfare capitalism kylie valentine	137
Part 3: Drugs, crime and the law
9	Court-ordered treatment, neoliberalism and Homo economicus Toby Seddon	155
10	Cannabis in cultural and legal limbo: Criminalisation, legalisation and the mixed blessing of medicalisation in the USA Craig Reinerman	171
11	Drugs, crime and the law in Australia Ian Warren	189
12	Reconceptualising harm reduction in prisons Karen Duke	209
13	Possessed: The unconscious law of drugs Desmond Manderson	225
	Index	240