

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction: In the name of Europe Sandra Ponzanesi and Bolette B. Blaagaard	1
Part I: Outbound: geographical margins, historical cores
1. Negotiating white Icelandic identity: multicultural and colonial identity formations Kristín Loftsdóttir	11
2. Asylum seekers as Austria's other: the re-emergence of Austria's colonial past in a state-of-exception Brigitte Hipfl and Daniela Gronold	27
3. Spelling out exclusion in Southern Italy Claudia Buonaiuto and Marie-Hélène Laforest	41
4. Whose freedom? Whose memories? Commemorating Danish colonialism in St. Croix Bolette B. Blaagaard	61
Part II: Deconstructing Europe: conviviality and invisibility
5. Europe in motion: migrant cinema and the politics of encounter Sandra Ponzanesi	73
6. Multiculturalism in a selection of English and Spanish fiction and artworks Lourdes López Roperó and Alejandra Moreno Álvarez	93
7. Adrift on the black Mediterranean diaspora: African migrant writing in Spain Esther Sánchez-Pardo	105
8. 'Rented spaces': Italian postcolonial literature Manuela Coppola	121
9. 'Dubbing di diaspora': gender and reggae music inna Babylon Sonia Sabelli	137

Workings of whiteness: interview with Vron Ware
Conducted by Bolette B. Blaagaard

153

Index

162