
Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Persuasion 1

Persuasion and Judgment 5

Dogmatism and Demagoguery 10

The Long Shadows of the Past 14

On Method 18

I Against Rhetoric

1 The Rhetoric against Rhetoric: Hobbes 25

Rhetoric and Controversy 27

Silencing Cicero 31

Alienating Judgment 36

The Dogmatism of Conscience 41

The Great Deception of Sense 45

The Rhetoric of Representation 51

2 Persuading without Convincing: Rousseau 55

Mute Eloquence 59

The Sovereign Within 62

Against Theater and Sword 66

The Musical Language of Moral Needs 70

The Rhetoric of Prophetic Nationalism 80

3 The Sovereignty of Scholars: Kant 84

The Machinery of Persuasion 87

The Sovereignty of Critique 88

Constructivism and Legitimacy 91

Against Popular Philosophy 93

Common Sense 98

The Rhetoric of Public Reason 105

II For Rhetoric

- 4 Drawing upon Judgment: Aristotle 115
 Demagoguery and the Courts 119
 Why Jurors Did Not Judge Well 121
 Situated Judgment 124
 A Technical Art 129
 Deliberative Partiality 135
 Rhetoric and Reform 139
- 5 Conviction and Controversy: Cicero 142
 The Convictions of a Skeptic 146
 Two Kinds of Probable Beliefs 151
 Controversy and Advocacy 155
 The Vulnerability of Oratory 162
 Institutions of Controversy 166
 The Conscience of Republicanism 170
- 6 Persuasion and Deliberation 174
 Alienating Judgment 177
 Engaging Judgment 185
 Taming Judgment 199
- Notes 215
- Bibliography 253
- Index 269