

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vi
Introduction: Geriatrics Today and Yesterday	1
1 The Knowledge of the Ancients: Ancient and Medieval Accounts of Old Age and Their Importance for Early Modern Europe	11
2 Between Elderly Care and Life Extension: Galenic Gerocomies to the mid-Seventeenth Century	41
3 Old Age in the Early Modern University: The Eclecticism of Medical Concepts after 1650	101
4 Old Women: The Marginalization of a Majority	161
Conclusion: Proto-Geriatrics between Tradition and Innovation	173
Notes	185
Works Cited	257
Index	279