

Abridged table of contents

---

Introduction:	Family medicine in an African context	1
Chapter 1	A different context of care	12
Chapter 2	The consultation – a comprehensive approach to the person	41
Chapter 3	Communication skills	67
Chapter 4	Family-oriented primary care	97
Chapter 5	Disease prevention and health promotion	128
Chapter 6	Management skills in the consultation	159
Chapter 7	An approach to assessing common symptoms	184
Chapter 8	Managing common conditions	250
Chapter 9	Community-oriented primary care	315
Chapter 10	Organisational and management principles	333
Chapter 11	The rural doctor	364
Chapter 12	Family medicine ethics	381
Chapter 13	Continuing professional development	406
Chapter 14	Integrative medicine	430
Bibliography		453
Index		469