

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments .....	vii
Introduction .....	1
“Naked” Politics in Travel Writing Ulrike Brisson
Chapter One.....	17
The Politics of Travel Writing in 2006 Bernard Schweizer
Chapter Two .....	38
A Short Walk through Afghanistan: Orientalism and its Discontent in Recent Literature Mark Graham
Chapter Three .....	59
The Politics of Travel Writing in Fascist Spain Javier Torre
Chapter Four.....	85
Travel in Disguise: On Travel Writing and Cultural Governance Hager Weslati
Chapter Five .....	110
The Personal is Political; but is the Political Personal? Women Travel Writers and their Changing Political Roles Maureen Mulligan
Chapter Six .....	135
Travel Writing, Emigration Laws, and Racial Whitening in Nineteenth-Century German-Brazilian History Gabi R. Kathöfer

Chapter Seven.....	162
British Female Radical Travelers and the Revolution Controversy, 1789-1815 Tsai-Yeh Wang
Chapter Eight.....	184
“A New Æra for Switzerland”: Political Instruction in Helen Maria Williams’ and Sophie von La Roche’s Swiss Travel Narratives During the French Revolution Florence Widmer-Schnyder
Select Bibliography .....	208
Contributors.....	217
Index.....	219