

Contents

---

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1

LIFE

---

Recollections	15
Family Background	32
Attempt to Escape	47
The Need to Get Out	47
Caught in Mozambique	60
Shot Down in Johannesburg	72
Robben Island	92
Interlude	110
Notes on my Activities	118
Travel problems – Opposition to racism &amp; apartheid
– Work in sport – Scholarly work – Autobiography
Notes on my Life	127
School days – Holidays &amp; work – Teaching –
On the International Defence &amp; Aid Fund –
On becoming politically conscious – Sports –
Prison – Travel – On being a citizen of the world

POETRY

---

'Somehow Tenderness Survives'	143
Talking with Students	157
Reviewing a Review	169
On Literature &amp; Commitment	180
On my Poetry	187
Further Notes on Poetry	197
On the fragmentary nature of my writing – On poetic method – On tenderness &amp; tension – On my banning – On my prison poetry – On the impact of exile – Poems from Algiers – China Poems
In Memoriam: Arthur Nortje 1942-1970	206
Index	209