

CONTENTS

Maps, Figures and Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Notes on Contributors	xiii
Introduction	1
Appendix An Act for the Abolition of the Slave Trade (1807)	46
Marcel van der Linden

POLITICS OF MEMORY

Commemorating Abolition, 1807–2007	57
James Walvin
The “Veil” in Post-Slavery Society. New Challenges for Historians: The Case of Surinam, 1808–2008	69
Angelie Sens

ABOLITIONS

Was Abolition of the American and British Slave Trade Significant in the Broader Atlantic Context?	117
David Eltis
The Limited Impact of 1808 in Brazil	141
Dick Geary
Revolution and Emancipation: The Role of Abolitionism in Ending Slavery in the Americas	155
Robin Blackburn
Abolition from Below: The 1808 Revolt in the Cape Colony	193
Nicole Ulrich

Slavery after the Abolition of the Slave Trade: The United States and the British West Indies	223
Stanley L. Engerman

The Abolition Act and the Development of Abolitionist Movements in 19th Century Europe	245
Andreas Gestrich

CONSEQUENCES

“As Always, the Trouble is with the French.” Britain, France, the Netherlands and the Colonial Labor Market in the 19th Century	265
Pieter C. Emmer

What Came after Emancipation? A Micro-Historical Comparison between Cuba and the United States	285
Michael Zeuske and Norbert Finzsch

Land Policies in Jamaica, 1830–1940	319
Claus Füllberg-Stolberg

Abolitionist Rhetorics, Colonial Conquest, and the Slow Death of Slavery in Germany’s African Empire	351
Andreas Eckert

More Continuity than Change? New Forms of Unfree Labor in the Belgian Congo, 1908–1930	369
Julia Seibert

The Discourse on Free Labor and the Forced Cultivation System: The Contradictory Consequences of the Abolition of the Slave Trade in Colonial Java, 1811–1870	387
Ulbe Bosma

Indenture, Grand Narratives and Fragmented Histories: The Dutch East Indies, c. 1880–1940	419
Roger Knight

CONTENTS

vii

PERSPECTIVES

The Long-Term Trajectory of Anti-Slavery in International Politics: From the Expansion of the European International System to Unequal International Development	435
Susan Zimmermann
Bibliography	499
Index	547