Contents

Acknowledgements ix

List of Tables x

1 Introducing Critical Management Ethics 1

2 Critical Virtue Ethics: From Aristotle to Adorno 25
   Modern virtue ethics 36

3 A Utilitarian Critique on Management Ethics 47
   The utilitarian Happiness Principle 50
   The ethics of pleasure, swine and marmalade 53
   The ethics of friendship and aesthetic enjoyment 65

4 A Kantian Critique on Management Ethics 68
   A textbook-case, categorical imperatives, and means-ends 74

5 Hegel's Sittlichkeit and Management Ethics 88
   Freedom, the common will and Sittlichkeit 96

6 Hegel's Slave-Morality and Management Ethics 105
   To have a purpose and to serve a purpose 120
   Management ethics as camera obscura 123

7 Kohlberg's Moral Manager I: From Impulsiveness to Punishment 126

8 Kohlberg's Moral Manager II: From Rewards to Universalism 148

9 Positive Management Ethics 170
   The managerial ethics of intuitionism and subjectivism 171
   The managerial ethics of moral egoism 172
   The managerial ethics of relativism and moral solitude 174
   The managerial ethics of nihilism 176
   The managerial ethics of Thomas Hobbes 180
   The managerial ethics of Friedrich Nietzsche 186
10 Conclusion: The Practical Ethics of Sittlichkeit and Communicative Ethics

Ten rules for ethics councils

Notes

Bibliography

Index