

Contents

So Far – So Near

- 4      Insights into the Wemhöner Collection

West meets East / East meets West

- 6      Heiner Wemhöner Discusses the Asian Focus of his Collection

Alter Egos, Clones and Other Serial Creations in Contemporary Chinese Art

- |    |                       |                                 |
|----|-----------------------|---------------------------------|
| 12 | Chen Yu        | Marching to a Different Drummer |
| 14 | Chi Peng       | Me, Me, Me and the Monkey King  |
| 30 | Dong Mingguang | Ostensible Innocence            |
| 34 | Shi Yong       | Where Were You Yesterday?       |
| 38 | Wang Shugang   | Rituals with an Expiry Date     |
| 42 | Xiang Liqing   | Beyond Recognition              |
| 44 | Yue Minjun     | Ridicule and Scorn              |

Past and Future in the Creation of Art. Tibet, China, France, America, Germany, England

- |    |                          |  |
|----|--------------------------|--|
| 50 | Gonkar Gyatso     | Outline of Buddha                          |
| 54 | Hong Lei          | Aura of Past Greatness                     |
| 56 | Isaac Julien      | Foreign Homeland                           |
| 60 | André Masson      | Movements in Space as Marks on a Plane     |
| 62 | Martin McMurray   | Unreliable Visual Messages                 |
| 66 | Bettina Pousttchi | World Time, Time to Live, Time to Remember |
| 70 | Shi Jing          | Taoism, the Modern Way                     |
| 72 | Yang Fudong       | When There's No Snow on the Bridge         |
| 74 | Yin Xiuzhen       | Applying Beuys to Buddhism                 |
| 78 | Zhang Dali        | Graffiti as a Symbol of Revolt             |

Endless Landscape. Austria, China, Japan, Germany, America

- |     |                          |                                      |
|-----|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 84  | Hai Bo            | Visual Remembrances of the Present   |
| 86  | Josef Hoflehner   | Serene Drama                         |
| 94  | Hu Jieming        | Globalisation Run Aground            |
| 98  | Lü Song           | Painted from the Archive of the Mind |
| 102 | Hiroyuki Masuyama | Making Worlds                        |
| 106 | Michael Najjar    | Real Virtuality                      |
| 116 | Richard Serra     | Black is a Property                  |

Pop Art Adaptations and Playing Around with Kitsch in China

122	Ji Wenyu	When the West Infiltrated Chinese Art
126	Shi Xinning	What to do with Mao?
128	Wang Yin	The Provocative Nature of Painting
130	Wang Zhiyuan	In a Cultural Limbo
132	Wei Guangqing	Pop Art 'Made in China'
138	Zhao Bandi	At the Panda's Side
142	Zhou Tiehai	Distanced Art

The Language of the Naked Body. Japan, Vietnam, China, Iceland

146	Nobuyoshi Araki	Photography is Life
148	Jean-Baptiste Huynh	The Body as Landscape
150	island6 (Liu Dao)	Urban Island Art
154	RongRong &amp; inri	Staged Transience
158	Wu Shanzhuan &amp; Inga Svala Thorsdottir	The Fall from Grace in the Supermarket
162	Zuoxiao Zuzhou et al	Changing the World with Your Own Body

Appendices

166	List of exhibits
188	The Art Collector Heiner Wemhöner
190	Acknowledgements
191	Colophon