

Contents

Introduction

Patrick Loobuyck, Leni Franken, Adriaan Overbeeke & Paul De Hert
Religious Education in a Religiously Pluralised and Secularised Society..... 9

Part I:

Different Models of Religious Education in Europe

Peter Schreiner

Situation and Current Developments of Religious Education in Europe 17

Patrick Loobuyck & Leni Franken

Religious Education in Belgium: Historical Overview and Current Debates..... 35

Anna Van den Kerchove

Teaching about Religious Issues within the Framework of the French “Laïcité” 55

Denise Cush

Without Fear or Favour: Forty Years of Non-confessional and Multi-faith Religious Education in Scandinavia and the UK..... 69

Ina ter Avest, Gerdien Bertram-Troost & Siebren Miedema

Religious Education in a Pillarised and Postsecular Age in the Netherlands..... 85

Wanda Alberts

Religious Education in Norway 99

Part II:

Should Religious Education be Part of the (State) School Curriculum? Three Normative Views

Friedrich Schweitzer

Dialogue Needs Difference: The Case for Denominational and Cooperative Religious Education..... 117

Tim Jensen

Why Religion Education, as a Matter of Course, ought to be Part of the Public School Curriculum 131

Paul Cliteur

Why Religious Education should not be Exclusively Religious 151

Conclusion

Patrick Loobuyck & Leni Franken

The Challenges of the Paradigm Shift in Religious Education..... 169

Biographical Details..... 177