Introduction .....xiii

Chapter 1:

Main Types of Epileptic Seizures and Their Imitators ..... 1

- Generalised Tonic–Clonic Seizures
  - Prodromes (Non-epileptic) Preceding the Onset of a GTCS
  - Ictal Events Preceding the Onset of a GTCS
- Epileptic Myoclonic Jerks
- Absence Seizures
- Tonic Seizures
- Epileptic Spasms
- Epileptic Drop Attacks
- Focal Epileptic Seizures

Chapter 2:

Syncopal Attacks Imitating Epileptic Seizures ..... 9

- Neurally Mediated Syncope
  - Vasovagal Syncope
  - Reflex Anoxic Seizures
  - Orthostatic Syncope
  - Syncopes Induced by Valsalva Manoeuvre
  - Micturition Syncope
  - Carotid Sinus Syncope
- Cardiogenic Syncope
  - The Long QT Syndrome
  - Syncopes Induced by Drugs and Electrolyte Abnormalities
- Syncopal Attacks Provoking Epileptic Seizures: Anoxic Epileptic Seizures
- Epileptic Seizures Imitating Syncope

Chapter 3:

Psychogenic NEPEs Imitating Epileptic Seizures ..... 17

- Convulsive Psychogenic Status Epilepticus
- Suffocation in Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy
- Panic Attacks
- Hyperventilation Syndrome
- Management of PNEPEs

Chapter 4:

Non-epileptic Paroxysmal Movement Disorders Imitating Epileptic Seizures . . . . . 23

Tics, Compulsions, Stereotypies and Mannerisms

Tremor

Non-epileptic Movement Disorders in Neonates and Infants Imitating Seizures

Jitteriness

Tonic Reflex Seizures of Early Infancy

Alternating Hemiplegia

Benign Paroxysmal Torticollis

Rhythmic Behavioural Movements

Self-gratification Disorder

Gastro-oesophageal Reflux in Infants

Benign Neonatal Sleep Myoclonus

Benign Non-epileptic Myoclonus of Early Infancy (Fejerman Syndrome)

Hyperekplexia

Other Non-epileptic Paroxysmal Movement Disorders

Familial Paroxysmal Dystonic Choreoathetosis

Non-epileptic Paroxysmal Kinesigenic Choreoathetosis

Episodic Ataxia Type 1

Chapter 5:

Non-epileptic Severe Amnesic and Confusional Attacks

Imitating Epileptic Seizures . . . . . 33

Transient Global Amnesia

Psychogenic (Dissociative) Fugues

Prolonged Confusional States

Non-epileptic Staring Spells, Childhood Preoccupation and Daydreaming

Chapter 6:

NEPEs Occurring During Sleep and Sleep Disorders . . . . . 37

Classification of Sleep Disorders

Sleep-Related Non-epileptic Movement Disorders

Hypnagogic Myoclonic Jerks (Sleep Starts)

Nocturnal Myoclonus

Fragmentary Hypnic Myoclonus

Propriospinal Myoclonus

Benign Neonatal Sleep Myoclonus

Facio-mandibular Myoclonus

Restless Legs Syndrome and Periodic Limb Movement Disorder

Rhythmic Movements in Sleep

Sleepwalking and Night Terrors

Paroxysmal Nocturnal Dystonia (Hypnogenic Paroxysmal Dystonia)

Sleep-Related Non-epileptic Behavioural and Other Disorders

Sleep Drunkenness

Bruxism

Catathrenia (Nocturnal Expiratory Groaning)

Nocturnal Enuresis

REM Sleep Behaviour Disorder

Sleep-Related Eating Disorder

Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (Cot Death)

- Narcolepsy
  - Demographic Data
  - Clinical Manifestations
  - Aetiology
  - Diagnostic Procedures
  - Differential Diagnosis
  - Prognosis
  - Management
- Sleep Apnoea
- Sleep Disorders in the Elderly

Chapter 7:

- Subjective Non-epileptic Paroxysmal Symptoms
  - Imitating Simple Focal Seizures ..... 47
    - Visual, Auditory, Somatosensory, Olfactory, Gustatory and Autonomic Paroxysmal Symptoms
    - Imitating Simple Focal Seizures
    - Cyclic Vomiting, Paroxysmal Vertigo and Motion Sickness
      - Cyclic Vomiting Syndrome
      - Benign Positional Paroxysmal Vertigo
      - Benign Paroxysmal Vertigo of Childhood
      - Motion Sickness

Chapter 8:

- Migraine, Migralepsy, Basilar Migraine with EEG Occipital Paroxysms and Diagnostic Errors ..... 51
  - Visual Aura of Migraine
  - Basilar Migraine
  - Migralepsy
  - Visual Seizures
    - Differentiating Visual Seizures from Migraine

- Appendix ..... 59
  - Cerebrovascular NEPEs Imitating Epileptic Seizures

- References ..... 61

- Index ..... 69
