

Table of Contents

Introduction	11
Chapter 1
Queer Representation and Popular Media	21
Television Series and Homosexuality	26
Chapter 2
Theoretical Background	43
Queer Studies: Current State of Research	43
Developing Theses	54
Deconstructing Heteronormativity	55
Challenging Institutionalized Attitudes and Expectations	59
Reinforcing Stereotypes	67
Chapter 3
Subjects of Investigation	73
Queer as Folk and The L Word	73
Queer as Folk (QAF-UK)	73
Queer as Folk (QAF-US)	78
The L Word (TLW)	82
Format Conventions and Characteristics	87
Chapter 4
Methodology	93
Preparing Audiovisual Material for Analysis	93
Cultural Negotiations and Television Serials	96

Analysing Content in Products of Popular Media	102
Qualitative Content Analysis	106
Methodological Steps	112
Chapter 5
Categories and Coding Results	117
Points of Focus	126
Chapter 6
Creating a Homonormative World	129
Chapter 7
Representation of the Others	139
Social and Legal Injustice	141
Family: Questioning Genetic Bonds	155
Bigotry, Homophobia and Violence	167
Hypocrisy and Failing Morals	178
Heterophobia	197
Chapter 8
New Order and Value System	207
Pride, Self-Acceptance and Linguistic Resignification	208
New Forms of Partnership	222
Families of Choice: Loyalty and Friendship	234
Assimilation versus Diversity	239
Chapter 9
Questioning Gender and Sexual Dichotomies	247
Unmasking the Performativity of Gender	248
Limits of Sexual Fluidity	260

Chapter 10
Stereotypes and the Mandate of Representation	275
Hedonism and Promiscuity	275
Celebrating a Lifestyle: Party, Sex and Drugs	275
Dangers and the Threat of HIV	282
The Requirement of Youth and Beauty	293
Chapter 11
Politics of Visibility	303
Visibility and the Construction of a Community	305
Representing Queer Diversity	316
Chapter 12
Results, Conclusion and Outlook	329
References	339