

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	1
1 The Slippery Slope of Memory	17
2 Agreeing to Disagree on the Legacies of Recent History	27
3 The Ethics of Seeing: Photographs of Germany at the End of the War	49
4 The Sound of Silence: Reflections on Bernhard Schlink and Gesine Schwan	59
5 Living in the Third Person: The Uncanny Hans Schneider/Schwerte	67
6 Goodbye to Grand Narratives? Moving the Soviet War Memorial in Tallinn	77
7 Memory, Pluralism and the Agony of Politics	97
8 The Fata Morgana of Revolution	109
Postscript: Europe between Past and Future	123
Bibliography	129
Index	139