

Table of contents

VEIKKO ANTTONEN
Making space for the 'post-secular' in religious studies	11
NINA BJÖRKMAN
A pure mind and a healthy body: an Islamic perspective	15
MÅNS BROO
Yoga practices as identity capital: preliminary notes from Turku, Finland	24
ABBY DAY
Non-religious Christians	35
LISELOTTE FRISK
The practice of mindfulness: from Buddhism to secular mainstream in a post-secular society	48
INGVILD SÆLID GILHUS
Post-secular religion and the therapeutic turn: three Norwegian examples	62
CÉLINE GRÜNHAGEN
Healing chants and Singing Hospitals : towards an analysis of the implementation of spiritual practices as therapeutic means	76
TINA HAMRIN-DAHL
The philosophy of nature as a springboard into social realism: about Ibsen's Emperor and Galilean and a post-secular interpretation of the drama by Hilda Hellwig	89
ANNE-CHRISTINE HORNBERG
'Are you content with being just ordinary? Or do you wish to make progress and be outstanding?' New ritual practices in contemporary Sweden	111

TUIJA HOVI
Clinical services instead of sermons	128
ANNE KALVIG
Facing suffering and death: alternative therapy as post-secular religious practice	145
MARIA KAPSALI
Body–mind unity and the spiritual dimension of Modern Postural Yoga	165
CHRISTIANE KÖNIGSTEDT
Religio-spiritual strategies of self-help and empowerment in everyday life: selected cases of spirituality in Germany	178
MIKA LASSANDER & PEIK INGMAN
Exploring the social without a separate domain for religion: on actor-network theory and religion	201
MARIA LEPPÄKARI
Contesting spiritual dimensions of health: salutogenic approaches to post-secular quests for quality of life	218
CECILIA MELDER
The epidemiology of lost meaning: a study in the psychology of religion and existential public health	237
LISBETH MIKAELSSON
Pilgrimage as post-secular therapy	259
URSZULA PEKALA
Post-secular religious practices entering traditional religion	274
OUTI POHJANHEIMO
The enrichment of magical thinking through practices among Reiki self-healers	289
MARTIN RADERMACHER
Devotional fitness: aspects of a contemporary religious system	313

TOMMY RAMSTEDT
Making sense of personal and global problems: an analysis of the writings and lectures of Rauni-Leena Luukanen-Kilde	344
OLLE SUNDSTRÖM
Is the shaman indeed risen in post-Soviet Siberia?	350
TEEMU TAIRA
Atheist spirituality: a follow on from New Atheism?	388
CLAUS TIREL
Two ways to get an Integral Theory: Ken Wilber's method of integration	405
LAURA WICKSTRÖM
Contemporary environmentalism as a current of spiritual post-secular practice	419
Biographical notes	433