

CONTENTS

Preface		vii
Acknowledgments		xi
Introduction		xiii
Part 1. Identifying Bodies and Bodily Identifications one	Critical Resistance: Foucault and Bourdieu David Couzens Hoy	3 two	The Soul of America: Whiteness and the Disappearing of Bodies in the Progressive Era Tracy Fessenden	23 three	The Abject Borders of the Body Image Gail Weiss	41
four	Claiming One's Identity: A Constructivist/Narrativist Approach Sean P. O'Connell	61 Part 2. Embodied Mind: Phenomenological Approaches to Cognitive Science, Psychology, and Anthropology five	Embodied Reason Mark L. Johnson	81 six	The Challenge of Merleau-Ponty's Phenomenology of Embodiment for Cognitive Science Hubert L. Dreyfus and Stuart E. Dreyfus	103 seven	Affordances: An Ecological Approach to First Philosophy John T. Sanders	121 eight	Embodiment and Cultural Phenomenology Thomas J. Csordas	143

Part 3.	Rewriting the History of the Body nine	Returning the Gaze: The American Response to the French Critique of Ocularcentrism Martin Jay	165 ten	The Epoch of the Body: Need and Demand in Kojève and Lacan Charles Shepherdson	183
eleven	Disciplining the Dead Kevin O'Neill	213 twelve	The Preservation and Ownership of the Body Thomas F. Tierney	233
	Contributors	262
	Index	265