Contents

List of Figures, Tables and Boxes vii
Acknowledgements ix
Preface xi

1 A Brief History of Public Health and the Built Environment 1
2 The State, Ideology, Health and Built Space in Africa 19
3 Town Planning, Public Health and the Colonial Project 39
4 Racism Versus Health Concerns as the Rationale for Racial Segregation 55
5 Public Health Implications of Modernist Planning 75
6 Hygiene and Sanitation Conditions in West and Central Africa 93
7 Hygiene and Sanitation in the Eastern and Southern Africa Region 119
8 Hygiene and Sanitation in Northern Africa 143
9 Solid Waste Disposal and Sanitation Technologies, and Determinants of Access to Improved Sanitation 167
10 Sustainable Hygiene and Sanitation Strategies 195

References 213
Index 225