

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables .....	xi
Acknowledgments .....	xv
Introduction .....	1
Marcel van der Linden and Leo Lucassen

WORK PROCESSES

Working for Diamonds from the 16th to the 20th Century .....	19
Karin Hofmeester
Green Plants into Blue Cakes: Working for Wages in Colonial Bengal's Indigo Industry .....	47
Willem van Schendel
Dak Roads, Dak Runners and the Re-ordering of Communication Networks .....	75
Chitra Joshi
Production Systems and Forms of Labor Control in the Javanese Cigarette Industry; 1920s–1930s .....	99
Ratna Saptari

OCCUPATIONS

Selling in the Shadows: Peddlers and Hawkers in Early Modern Europe .....	125
Danielle van den Heuvel
The Worst Class of Workers: Migration, Labor Relations and Living Strategies of Prostitutes around 1900 .....	153
Lex Heerma van Voss
Fighting for a Living in Europe and Asia .....	171
Erik-Jan Zürcher

White Collar Workers of the VOC in Amsterdam, 1602–1795 .....	191
Karel Davids

MOBILITIES

The Career Ladder to the Top of the Dutch East India Company: Could Foreigners also Become Commanders and Junior Merchants? .....	215
Jaap R. Bruijn and Femme S. Gaastra
Demographic Change and Migration Flows in Holland between 1500 and 1800 .....	237
Jan Luiten van Zanden and Maarten Prak
The Economic Contribution of Labor Migrants in the European Maritime Labor Market of the Long Eighteenth Century .....	247
Jelle van Lottum
Income Differentials, Institutions, and Religion: Working in the Rhineland or Pennsylvania in the Eighteenth Century .....	269
Richard W. Unger

CONTEXTUALIZATIONS

Labor Laws in Western Europe, 13th–16th Centuries: Patterns of Political and Socio-economic Rationality .....	299
Catharina Lis and Hugo Soly
The First “Male Breadwinner Economy”? Dutch Married Women’s and Children’s Paid and Unpaid Work in Western Europe Perspective, c. 1600–1900 .....	323
Elise van Nederveen Meerkerk
Wage Labor and the Household Economy: A Russian Perspective, 1600–2000 .....	353
Gijs Kessler

Cane Sugar and Unlimited Supplies of Labor in the 1930s: New Thinking and the Origin of Development Economics .....	371
Ulbe Bosma

SOURCES

Unwritten Autobiography: Labor History Libraries before World War I .....	395
Jaap Kloosterman
Notes on Contributors .....	417
Tabula Gratulatoria .....	423
Index .....	425