

Contents

---

List of contributors	vi
Acknowledgements	x
1 Capital mobilization, transnational structures, and capitalist classes John Scott	1
2 The financialization of global corporate ownership David Peetz and Georgina Murray	26
3 Capital relations and directorate interlocking: the global network in 2007 William K. Carroll	54
4 The transnational capitalist class and tax havens Anthony van Fossen	76
5 The Business Roundtable and the transnational capitalist class Clifford L. Staples	100
6 Transnational business networks in the Eurozone: a focus on four major stock exchange indices François-Xavier Dudouet, Eric Grémont and Antoine Vion	124
7 The transnational class in Mexico: new and old mechanisms structuring corporate networks (1981–2010) Alejandra Salas-Porras	146
8 National and transnational structuring of the British corporate elite Bruce Cronin	177
9 Australia's ruling class: a local elite, a transnational capitalist class or bits of both? Georgina Murray	193
10 Outward bound: transnational capitalism in China Jerry Harris	220
11 Corporate futures and the consequences from the top end of town Georgina Murray	242
Index	261