

Contents

Contributors	page ix
Preface by Gerrit K. Kimsma	xv
Preface by Stuart J. Youngner	xix
Introduction by Stuart J. Youngner and Gerrit K. Kimsma	xxiii

PART I BACKGROUND AND HISTORY

1	The Lateness of the Dutch Euthanasia Debate and Its Consequences James C. Kennedy	3
2	Classifications and Definitions: Dutch Developments Johan Legemaate	21
3	The Legalization of Euthanasia in the Netherlands: Revolutionary Normality Heleen Weyers	34
4	The Normative Context of the Dutch Euthanasia Law Esther Pans	69
5	Dutch Social Groups on “Euthanasia”: The Political Spectrum on Ending Life on Request Heleen Weyers	82
6	The Dutch Social Fabric: Health Care, Trust, and Solidarity Margo Trappenburg and Hans Oversloot	99

PART II REGULATION AND PRACTICE DEFICIENCIES

7	The Unreported Cases Bregje D. Onwuteaka-Philipsen	123
8	Physician Assistance in Dying Without an Explicit Request by the Patient Agnes van der Heide	137

9	When Requests Do Not Result in Euthanasia or Assisted Suicide H. Roeline W. Pasman	147
10	Dutch Euthanasia in Retrospect John Griffiths	159

PART III QUALITY ASSURANCE

11	Euthanasia Consultants: Professional Assessment Before Euthanasia and Physician-Assisted Suicide in the Netherlands Gerrit K. Kimsma	181
12	Reviews after the Act: The Role and Work of Regional Euthanasia Review Committees Gerrit K. Kimsma and Evert van Leeuwen	192
13	Palliative Care and Physician-Assisted Death Dick Willems	202

PART IV LEARNING FROM THE PRACTICE

14	Unbearable Suffering and Advanced Dementia: The Moral Problems of Advance Directives for Euthanasia Cees M. P. M. Hertogh	215
15	Decision-Making Capacity in Patients Who Are in the Early Stage of Alzheimer's Disease and Who Request Physician-Assisted Suicide Ron Berghmans	229
16	Being "Weary of Life" as Cause for Seeking Euthanasia or Physician-Assisted Suicide Mette Rurup	247
17	Shared Obligations and "Medical Friendships" in Assisted Dying: Moral and Psychological Repercussions Reconsidered Gerrit K. Kimsma and Chalmers C. Clark	263
18	Depression, Euthanasia, and Assisted Suicide Marije van der Lee	277
19	End-of-Life Decisions in Children and Newborns in the Netherlands Pieter J. J. Sauer and A. A. Eduard Verhagen	288
20	Hastening Death Through Voluntary Cessation of Eating and Drinking: A Survey Boudewijn E. Chabot	305

PART V THE CHALLENGE OF UNBEARABLE SUFFERING

21	The Subjectivity of Suffering and the Normativity of Unbearableness Henri Wijsbek	319
----	---	-----

22	Assessment of Unbearable and Hopeless Suffering in Evaluating a Request to End Life Gerrit K. Kimsma	333
----	---	-----

PART VI OVERVIEW

23	The Regulation of Euthanasia: How Successful Is the Dutch System? Govert den Hartogh	351
24	No Regrets Margo Trappenburg	392
	Index	401