

Contents

Abbreviations	xiii
Contributors' biographies	xvi
Acknowledgements	xxix
Dedications and donations	xxxii
Foreword Bill Drayton	xxxiii
Preface Amy Chua	xxxvii
1. Social entrepreneurship in the age of atrocities: Introduction Zachary D. Kaufman	1
2. 'I pray never to see again what I saw': The National Vision for Sierra Leone Sophie Raseman and Anthea Zervos	20
3. Starting a movement for refugee rights in the Global South: Asylum Access and beyond Emily E. Arnold-Fernández, Mauro De Lorenzo, Barbara Harrell-Bond, and Rachel Levitan	39
4. Social entrepreneurship in a post-genocide society: Building Rwanda's first public library, the Kigali Public Library Zachary D. Kaufman	58
5. 'Stand bold': Indego Africa's business case for Rwandan women Conor B. French, Matthew T. Mitro, and Benjamin D. Stone	83
6. Transformation through education: Generation Rwanda and access to higher education for Rwanda's orphans and vulnerable youth Dai Ellis, Jamie Hodari, and Oliver Rothschild	107
7. Providing access to education for children orphaned or made vulnerable by HIV/AIDS: Orphans Against AIDS Scott Grinsell and Andrew Klaber	124
8. Inspiring generational change: Americans for Informed Democracy Seth Green and Leah Maloney	146
9. Re-connecting cousins: Children of Abraham Ari Alexander and Gul Rukh Rahman	166

10. Social entrepreneurship in the age of atrocities: Lessons learned and conclusion Zachary D. Kaufman	189
Afterword Cheryl L. Dorsey	222
Appendix: Social entrepreneurship resources and institutions	225
Index	247