

Content

| | | |
|------------------------------|-----|---|
| Thera Folmer-von Oven | 14 | A First Introduction to the Collection: The History of the Liberna Collection |
| Christopher de Hamel | 26 | Medieval Illuminated Manuscripts for Private Use |
| Ruth Rasche | 34 | The Bible: A Remarkable Book between Manuscript and Print |
| Iris Mentrup | 46 | The “edel kunst der truckerey” (Noble Art of Printing): From Mainz via Europe and into the World |
| Eberhard König | 56 | From Gutenberg’s Bible to Dürer’s Apocalypse: Latin Beginnings of Book Printing and Early Illustration of Books in the Vernacular |
| Sarah Zabel | 64 | Mastery and Media Awareness: Albrecht Dürer and the Print |
| Erik Hinterding | 72 | Rembrandt’s Secret: On Etching Technique, Drypoint and Burin |
| Uwe Westfeling | 80 | Drawing: The Medium of Creative Precision |
| Thera Folmer-von Oven | 88 | Some Observations on the Role of Drawing and the Function of Drawings: Based on Examples from the Liberna Collection |
| Thera Folmer-von Oven | 96 | Journey through a Fascinating Collection: Some Core Areas of the Liberna Collection |
| | 108 | Catalogue of Exhibited Works |
| | | Manuscripts Cat. 001–006 |
| | | Incunables Cat. 007–014 |
| | | Bibles Cat. 015–027 |
| | | Study Cat. 028–078 |
| | | Artists’ Books Cat. 079–081 |
| | | Albrecht Dürer Cat. 082–091 |
| | | Rembrandt Cat. 092–101 |
| | | Drawings Cat. 102–120 |
| | 360 | Appendix |