

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| PREFACE | vii |
| INTRODUCTION | |
| 1. Theological Diversity in the Old Testament | 1 |
| Forms of Diversity in Old Testament Faith | |
| Reasons for the Diversity of Old Testament Faith | |
| Degrees of Diversity and Forms of Contradiction | |
| Is It Appropriate to Look for Theological Coherence in the Old Testament? | |
| PART I: A Contextual or Historical Approach | |
| 2. Can We Explain Diverse Theologies by Their Contexts? | 29 |
| Diversity within the Boundaries of Membership of One "Family" | |
| Diversity of Viewpoint and Diversity of Context | |
| The Usefulness and Limitations of This Contextual Approach | |
| Are Some Contexts More Illuminating Than Others? | |
| Instances of Themes Emerging at Their Most Illuminating in Particular Contexts | |
| 3. A Contextualizing Study of "the People of God" in the Old Testament | 59 |
| The Wandering Clan | |
| The Theocratic Nation | |
| The Institutional State | |
| The Afflicted Remnant | |
| The Community of the Promise | |
| The Continuing Story of the People of God in Judaism and Christianity | |
| Permanent Insights and Recurring Questions | |
| What Does It Mean to Be the People of God? | |

PART II: An Evaluative or Critical Approach

4. Can We Affirm Some Viewpoints and Criticize Others? 97
- Evaluation on the Basis of the Material's Moral Concern
 Evaluation on the Basis of the Material's Developmental Level
 Evaluation on the Basis of the Material's Mosaic or Prophetic Spirit
 Evaluation on the Basis of a Comparison with New Testament Concerns
 Evaluation of the Material on Its Own Terms
 Sachkritik
 The Canon within the Canon
 An Evaluative or Critical Approach to Diversity in the Old Testament
5. An Evaluative Study of the Teaching of Deuteronomy 134
- Deuteronomy's Behavioral Values
 Deuteronomy's Theological Perspective
 Deuteronomy's Pastoral Strategy

PART III: A Unifying or Constructive Approach

6. Can We Formulate One Old Testament Theology? 167
- The Search for a Unity Underlying the Old Testament as a Whole
 Drawbacks and Limitations about the Search for a Unity Underlying Old Testament Faith
 Old Testament Theology and Old Testament Symbols
 A Constructive Approach
 Instances of the Need for Theological Construction with Old Testament Material
7. A Unifying Approach to "Creation" and "Salvation" in the Old Testament 200
- Salvation History Emphasized and Subjected to Critique
 Nature Overshadowed and Re-acknowledged
 Blessing Overshadowed and Re-acknowledged
 Wisdom Overshadowed and Re-acknowledged
 The Polarity of God's Involvement in the Regularities of Life (Creation) and His Acts of Deliverance (Redemption)

CONTENTS

v

| | |
|---|------------|
| The World God Redeems Is the World of God's Creation The World God Created Is a World That Needed to Be Redeemed Human Beings Are Redeemed to Live Again Their Created Life before God The Redeemed Humanity Still Looks for a Final Act of Redemption/Re-creation | |
| Bibliography | 240 |
| Index of Subjects | 291 |
| Index of Authors | 296 |
| Index of Scripture | 302 |