

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

1. Ethnographic Setting 6

The Areal Context 6

Contact With Western Culture and the Ethnographic Present 12

Environment and Subsistence 16

Residence and Settlement Pattern 21

Coresidence and Kinship 27

Social Relations: Gender, Politics, Ethos 31

2. Confronting Death and Anger: A Case Study 35

3. Ethos: Key Concepts 61

Kogwayay (Good Company) 61

Abwida (Fear) 69

Gɔf (Anger) 72

Reciprocity 78

4. Sickness, Death, and Sorcery Beliefs	81
Minor Spirit Affliction: To Di Faym	83
Moderate Spirit Affliction: Fin Forgop	86
Chronic/Severe Illness: Bap Sorcery	94
Potentially Fatal Illness: Bogay Sorcery	96
Spiritual Warrior Assault: Ogowili	104
Epidemic Sickness Sorcery: Haw Gaw	106
Personalities and Patterns	108
Conclusion	110
5. Sorcery and Mortality	113
Types and Frequency of Homicide	116
Incidence and Severity of Sorcery Attributions	123
Relations Between Sickness-Victim and Accuser/Killer	129
Sorcery Types and Age/Sex Variations	132
Sorcerer-Victim Coresidence	137
Sorcery and Age	140
Attributed Rationale for Sorcery	142
Summary	155
6. Kinship Groups and Marital Relations	157
Clan Units	157
Brother Clans	161
Relations Through Marriage	163
Types of Marriage	165
Marital Patterns and Marriage Structure	175
7. Sorcery and Kinship	181
Affinal and Matrikin Sorcery	182
Sorcery Between Subclans	196
Inter-Patriline Sorcery Within the Subclan	204
Intra-Patriline Sorcery	208
Sorcery Between Brother Clans	209
Sorcery Between Nonrelatives	212
Sorcery Between Kin Categories: Relative Distributions	214

8. Sorcery, Social Structure, and Inter-Tribal Relations 222
- Ogowili* Attributions Between Unrelated Persons 222
 - Directional Aggression, Marital Relations, and Clan Size 228
 - Population Differentials 237
 - External Versus Internal Dynamics 240
9. Ritual Feasts: Overcoming the Problem of Anger 245
- Before the Guests Arrive 246
 - The Entrance 247
 - Giving the Food 253
 - Drinking and Talking 255
 - Dancing and Joking 257
 - Public Discussions 267
 - Central Theme and Variations 268
 - Theoretical Observations 270
10. Narratives: Resolution Through Romance 273
- Marriage and Affines 281
 - Sister Exchange 282
 - Sorcery 286
 - Conclusions 293
11. Spirit Seances: The Generation of
Good Company and Anger 295
- Good Company 296
 - The Spirit World: Experience Through Song 299
 - The Spirit Medium 306
 - Overcoming Anger 307
 - Generating Anger 309
 - Seance Structure and Sorcery 311
 - Conclusions 318

12. Ethnographic Conclusions	320
Gebusi Sorcery as an Operational System	320
Gebusi Sorcery as a Cultural Form	330
Gebusi Sorcery in the Melanesian Context	339
13. Conclusions of Method and Theory	349
Beyond Symbols and Awareness	351
Interest Theory?	353
Divergence of Domain	359
Convergence Through Dialectic	362
Appendices	369
A. Notes on Lexico-Statistics	369
B. Sorcery Attributions by Kin
Relationship and Sphere of Interaction	372
C. Origin Myth	374
D. Calculation of Pre-Contact and Post-Contact Homicide Rates	376
E. Homicide Rates in Various Societies	378
F. Text of a Post-Feast Sorcery Discussion	380
G. The Sixth Narrative: The Sorcery that Wasn't	385
Notes	399
References	425
Index	457