

Contents

VOLUME I – HIS LIFE AND WORK

Jürgen Backhaus
Introduction	13
Bernhard vom Brocke
Werner Sombart 1863-1941. Capitalism – Socialism. His Life, Works and Influence	19
Franz Müller
I Remember Sombart	103
Jürgen Backhaus
Participants of Sombart's Seminar	115
Wolfgang Drechsler
Werner Sombart After Fifty Years: What Makes His Work so Intriguing?	131
Jürgen Backhaus and Johannes M. Hanel
Sombart's Accomplishments for Modern Theory. Discussion	135
Harald Hagemann
How Well has Werner Sombart's Work Stood up in the Applied Fields? Summary of the Discussion	143
Lawrence A. Scaff
Sombart's Politics	151
Fritz Rebeis
Return to the Grace of God. Werner Sombart's Compromise with National Socialism	173
Rolf Rieß
Werner Sombart under National Socialism – A first Approximation	193
Heinz Ludwig
Sombart and the Jews	205

Harold R.C. Wright
Sombart and War	211
Pertti Töttö
In Search of the U-turn. A Critique of Dieter Lindenlaub's Interpretation of Werner Sombart's Methodological Development ...	227
Eberhard K. Seifert
Sombart's New Outline of Scope and Method of Economics. »'Methodologie' oder Verfahrenslehre der Neuen National- ökonomie« Facing the Transition of the »Wirtschaftssystem« to Late-Capitalism Since World War I.....	241
Birger P. Priddat
Werner Sombart's late Economic Thinking: Back to Physiocracy?	271
Peter Koslowski
Economic Ontology - Cultural Philosophy of the Economy - Business Ethics. Sombart as Proponent of a Philosophical Economics	297

VOLUME II – HIS THEORETICAL APPROACH RECONSIDERED

Jürgen Backhaus
Introduction	9
Karl-Heinz Schmidt
Sombart on Population	13
Dieter Schneider
Sombart or Spirit and Accountability of Capitalism as »Enthusiastic Lyricism«	31
Jacob J. Krabbe
Nature and Technology as Economic Categories: Sombart in the Mainstream	57
Johannes M. Hanel
Technology and Sciences under Modern Capitalism – Sombart's Forgotten Question: How Can Scientists and Engineers be Free and Responsible for Nature and Culture if Innovation is Induced by the Economic System?	65

Günther Chaloupek
Long Term Economic Trends in the Light of Werner Sombart's Concept of »Spätkapitalismus«	163
Harald Hagemann and Michael Landesmann
Sombart and Economic Dynamics	179
Günther Chaloupek
A Note on Harald Hagemann/Michael Landesmann, Sombart and Economic Dynamics	205
Zoltan Kenessey
The Scope of Output and the Productive Sectors: German Contributions in the 19th Century	207
Horst K. Betz
Werner Sombart's Theory of the City	233
Friedrich Lenger
Marx, the Crafts, and the First Edition of Modern Capitalism	251
Jörg Glombowski
Werner Sombart's Why is there no Socialism in the United States? Revisited	275
Manfred Prisching
The Entrepreneur and His Capitalist Spirit – Sombart's Psycho-Historical Model	301

VOLUME III – THEN AND NOW

Jürgen Backhaus
Introduction	7
Mark E. Blum
Breaks or Continuity in Sombart's Work: A Linguistic Analysis	11

Horst K. Betz
Werner Sombart and German Romanticism	111
Judith Marcus
Werner Sombart's Influence on German Literature: The Case of Thomas Mann	133
Peter R. Senn
Sombart's Reception in the English-Speaking World – »Je ne propose rien, je n'impose rien: j'expose.«	147
Wolfgang Drechsler
The Revisiting of Werner Sombart: Implications for German Sociological Thinking and for the German Debate about the Past	287
Peter R. Senn
Judgment in History: The Case of Werner Sombart	297
Warren J. Samuels
The Conditional Impact of Werner Sombart and Others on Modern American Social Thought. A Comment on Peter Senn's Article »Judgment in History«	321
Peter R. Senn
A Bibliography of Works by and about Werner Sombart in English .	327
Pertti Töttö
Sombart's Bibliography in German	359
S. Kanamori
Sombart's Bibliography in Japanese	369
Name Index	371
Subjekt Index	391
Authors	405

Contents

VOLUME I – HIS LIFE AND WORK

Jürgen Backhaus

Introduction 13

Bernhard vom Brocke

Werner Sombart 1863-1941. Capitalism – Socialism.

His Life, Works and Influence 19

Capitalism and Socialism (19) – Descent and Formative Years (21) – Socialism and The Social Movement (29) – From Enfant Terrible to a Colleague on Sufferance (39) – Family and Friends (45) – »Der Moderne Kapitalismus« (55) – From Precursor of the Conservative
Revolution to »Deutscher Sozialismus« : Planned Economy,
Autarchy, Ideology of the Middle Class (71) – Influence, Students,
Sombart Today (82) – Conclusions (101)

Franz Müller

I Remember Sombart 103

Jürgen Backhaus

Participants of Sombart's Seminar 115

Wolfgang Drechsler

Werner Sombart After Fifty Years:

What Makes His Work so Intriguing? 131

Jürgen Backhaus and Johannes M. Hanel

Sombart's Accomplishments for Modern Theory. Discussion 135

Harald Hagemann
How Well has Werner Sombart's Work Stood up in the Applied Fields? Summary of the Discussion	143
Lawrence A. Scaff
Sombart's Politics	151
The Problem (153) – From Science to Cultural Criticism (158) – From Cultural Philosophy to Politics (164) – Summary and Conclusion (169)
Fritz Rebeis
Return to the Grace of God. Werner Sombart's Compromise with National Socialism	173
The Liberal Interpretation of the Enlightenment Concept: World Society and the Autonomy of the Individual (174) – Ideological Patterns of Reaction to the Collapse of the Liberal Enlightenment Model and Sombart's Position (175) – The Background to Sombart's Flight to Theology Based on Economic Theory: an Hypothesis (185)
Rolf Rieß
Werner Sombart under National Socialism – A first Approximation	193
Heinz Ludwig
Sombart and the Jews	205
Harold R.C. Wright
Sombart and War	211
Socialist Heroes (211) – Warfare and Nationality (213) – »Unsere Feinde«, Berliner Tageblatt, 2 November 1914 (216) – German Heroes (219)
Pertti Töttö
In Search of the U-turn. A Critique of Dieter Lindenlaub's Interpretation of Werner Sombart's Methodological Development ...	227

Eberhard K. Seifert

Sombart's New Outline of Scope and Method of Economics.
»'Methodologie' oder Verfahrenslehre der Neuen National-ökonomie« Facing the Transition of the »Wirtschaftssystem« to Late-Capitalism Since World War I 241

Preface (243) – World War I as Threshold of the New Epoch of »Spätkapitalismus« and Options for the Future of the »ökonomische
Zeitalter« : Theoretical-Historical and Intentional Motives in Som-bart's »neue Verfahrenslehre« (247) – The New Methodology of Economics or »Verfahrenslehre der neuen Nationalökonomie« : The General Framework (255) – Methodological Implications (258) –
The »new Verfahrenslehre« for the Future: the Bias in favour of »practical economics« (262) – The State of Economics as a Science
(265)

Birger P. Priddat

Werner Sombart's late Economic Thinking:
Back to Physiocracy? 271

Peter Koslowski

Economic Ontology – Cultural Philosophy of the Economy –
Business Ethics. Sombart as Proponent of a Philosophical Economics 297