

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	7
Crises in the World-System: An Introduction ALBERT BERGESEN	9
PART 1: GLOBAL CRISES: GENERAL PERSPECTIVES
1. Crises: The World-Economy, the Movements, and the Ideologies IMMANUEL WALLERSTEIN	21
2. Cyclical Theories of Crises in the World-System ROBERT PHILIP WEBER	37
3. Cultural Crises ROBERT WUTHNOW	57
4. Modeling Long Waves of Crisis in the World-System ALBERT BERGESEN	73
5. Succession Crises in the Global Political System: A Test of the Transition Model WILLIAM R. THOMPSON	93
6. The Economic Status of Women in the World-System: A Hidden Crisis in Development KATHRYN B. WARD	117
PART 2: THE UNITED STATES IN CRISIS
7. The Limits of Analogy: Hegemonic Decline in Great Britain and the United States WALTER L. GOLDFRANK	143
8. Power Changes and Civil Religion: The American Case PHILLIP E. HAMMOND	155

9. Changes in the International Division of Labor and Low-Wage Labor in the United States MARLENE DIXON, SUSANNE JONAS, and ED McCAUGHAN	173
10. Mercantilism Inverted: World-Economic Crisis and Social Rectification in the United States in the 1980s KOSTIS PAPADANTONAKIS	193
PART 3: SPECIFIC HISTORICAL CRISES
11. The Weberian Revolution of the High Middle Ages RANDALL COLLINS	205
12. Imposed Collectivization and the Crisis of Agrarian Development in the Socialist States MARK SELDEN	227
13. Crises of Supply: Two Cases of the Shortage of Seafaring Labor ROBERT K. SCHAEFFER	253
14. African Economic Development: The Effects of East, West, and Chinese Penetration EDWARD L. KICK and JOSEPH CONATY	263
15. Capital in Crisis: Stagnation and Timber Company Operations, Canada, 1873-1896 SING C. CHEW	287
Notes on the Contributors	309