

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction by Everett Mendelsohn	vii
Biography of Contributors	xv
YEHUDA ELKANA – A Programmatic Attempt at an Anthropology of Knowledge	1
PETER W. G. WRIGHT – On the Boundaries of Science in Seven- teenth-Century England	77
KENNETH L. CANEVA – What Should We Do with the Monster?: Electromagnetism and the Psychosociology of Knowledge	101
PETER BUCK – Science and Modern Chinese Culture	133
ARTHUR KLEINMAN – The Meaning Context of Illness and Care: Reflections on a Central Theme in the Anthropology of Medicine	161
BYRON J. GOOD and MARY-JO DEL VECCHIO GOOD – The Semantics of Medical Discourse	177
ROBERT S. ANDERSON – The Necessity of Field Methods in the Study of Scientific Research	213
WOLF LEPENIES – Anthropological Perspectives in the Sociology of Science	245
Index	263