

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Abbreviations	9
INTRODUCTION	11
Chapter 1
THE ASCENSION NARRATIVES
IN INTERPRETIVE CONTEXT:
RETROSPECT AND PROSPECT	13
Retrospect: Previous Studies	14
Prospect: A Proposed Methodology	18
Conclusion	24
PART I: THE DEPARTURE OF JESUS IN LUKE	27
Chapter 2
LUKE 24.50-53 IN HISTORICAL CONTEXT:
A DIACHRONIC ANALYSIS	29
Text-Critical Analysis:
Establishing the Text of Luke 24.50-53	29
History of Scholarship	29
Theological Tendencies and Text-Critical Methodology	39
Conclusions	49
Form Analysis:
Establishing the Shape of Luke 24.50-53	52
Source Analysis:
Establishing the Origins of Luke 25.50-53	59
Conclusion	62
Chapter 3
LUKE 24.50-53 IN NARRATIVE CONTEXT:
A SYNCHRONIC ANALYSIS	65
History of Scholarship	65
Literary Theory and Closure in Fiction	66
Closure and Plot Development in Literary Theory	71
Closure and Plot Development in Luke	72
Closure and Viewpoint in Luke	96
Closure and the Relationship between Narrator and Reader in Luke	100
Conclusion	111

PART II: THE DEPARTURE OF JESUS IN ACTS	115
Chapter 4
ACTS 1.1-11 IN HISTORICAL CONTEXT:
A DIACHRONIC ANALYSIS	117
Text-Critical Analysis:
Establishing the Text of Acts 1.1-11	117
Form Analysis:
Establishing the Shape of Acts 1.1-11	135
Source Analysis:
Establishing the Origins of Acts 1.1-11	140
Conclusions	149
Chapter 5
ACTS 1.1-11 IN NARRATIVE CONTEXT:
A SYNCHRONIC ANALYSIS	151
History of Scholarship	151
Beginnings and Plot Development	155
Beginnings and Viewpoint	173
Beginnings and the Relationship between Narrator and Reader	180
Conclusion	184
CONCLUSION	187
Chapter 6
THE DEPARTURE OF JESUS IN CANONICAL CONTEXT:
A COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS	189
Relationship between Luke 24 and Acts 1	189
Conclusion	199
Notes	201
Bibliography	273
Index of Biblical References	289
Index of Authors	297