

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Introducing Colonial Discourse	1
2 Travel, Exploration, and “Discovery”: From Imagination to Inquiry	12
Imagining Multiple Worlds: The Fantasy of “Discovery”	18
The Narrative Organization of Discovery	29
“Inquiry” and the Documentation of the Others	41
Conclusion: “Discovery” and Wonder, “Contracted and Epitomized”	49
3 The Discourse of Difference: Constructing the Colonial Exotic	55
The Colony and Imperial Wealth	57
The Exotic in English Culture	59
The Colonial Exotic: Aesthetics, Science, and Difference	60
The Sentimental Exotic	62
The Scientific Exotic	79
Conclusion: From the Indian to the Colonial Exotic	95
4 Empire Management: From Domestication to Spectacle	104
The Domestication of Colonial Spaces	106
Administering Colonial Spaces	121
“Raising the General Credit of the Empire”: The Spectacle of Empire	140
Conclusion: Imperial Improvisation and the Spectacle	145
5 Civilizing the Empire: The Ideology of Moral and Material Progress	161
England’s Age of Improvement	164
Discipline and Improve	170

Imperial Lessons	174
The Salvific Colonial	178
Rescue, Reform, and Race	183
Conclusion: From Improvement to Self-Legitimization	194
6 Aesthetic Understanding: From Colonial English to Imperial Cosmopolitans	201
The Self-Fashioning of the Scholar-Colonial	204
Antiquarian Aesthetics and Colonial Authority	213
“Consumption, Ingestion, and Decoration”: Colonial Commodities	219
The “Empire City”: Pageantry and Empire	226
Conclusion: From Colonial English to Imperial Cosmopolitan	229
References	235
Index	260