

Table of Contents

Introduction	vii
Anna Fahraeus and Dikmen Yakalı-Çamoğlu
PART 1	Examining Infamous Representations of Villainy
Villains in Our Mind: A Psychological Approach to Literary and Filmic Villainy	3
Enrique Cámara Arenas
The Silent Villain: The Minimalist Construction of Patriarchal Villainy in John Le Carré's Karla Trilogy	29
Sara Martin
The Nazi's Villain and the Holocaust	47
Dana Lori Chalmers
PART 2	Villainy Victorious
'Wait till they get a load of me!' – The Joker from Modern to Postmodern Villainous S/laughter	71
Sorcha Ni Fhlainn
Little Red Riding Hood: Transition from Victim to Villain	93
Cynthia Jones
PART 3	Villains in the Community
'Can They Bear the Name Englishmen?': The Celebrity of Motor Bandits as a 'New Breed of Villain' in the 1920s	109
Jo Chipperfield
Historicising Racialised Objects of Horror: From the Black Renaissance Villain to the Modern Voodoo Doer	135
Anna Fahraeus
Representations of In-law Women as Villains in the Turkish Novel	149
Dikmen Yakalı-Çamoğlu

PART 4 Exemplifying Exceptional Perspectives: Villainy as a Necessary End

From Evil to Evil: Revisiting Ravana as a Tool for Community
Building 175
Anita Shukla

Who can Find a Virtuous CTU Agent? Jack Bauer as Modern 193
Hero, Antihero and Tragic Villain
Monika Bokiniec