
CONTENTS

Foreword:
Remarks on Theoretical
Pluralism
Robert K. Merton i

Introduction:
Diverse Views of Social Structure
and Their Common Denominator
Peter M. Blau 1

I. DIVERSE ORIENTATIONS

1. British Social Anthropology and
Lévi-Straussian Structuralism
Edmund R. Leach 27
2. Transformational Structuralism:
Lévi-Strauss's Definition of Social Structure
Ino Rossi 51
3. Marxist Structuralism
Wolf V. Heydebrand 81
4. Class, State, and Capitalist Development:
The Civil Wars in Chile (1851 and 1859)
Maurice Zeitlin 121
5. Some Observations on Structuralism in Sociology, with Special, and Paradoxical,
Reference to Max Weber
S. N. Eisenstadt 165

II. CONCEPTUAL ANALYSIS

6. Levels in the Study of Social Structure
Charles K. Warriner 179

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 7. | Hierarchic Structure in Social Phenomena
Walter L. Wallace | 191 |
| 8. | Notes on Expectations of Reward
in N -Person Networks
Charles Kadushin | 235 |
| 9. | Undesired Consequences and Types of Structures of Systems of Interdependence
Raymond Boudon | 255 |

III. QUANTITATIVE MODELS

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 10. | A Structural Theory of Rank Differentiation
Bruce H. Mayhew and Paul T. Schollaert | 287 |
| 11. | Voluntary Affiliation:
A Structural Approach
J. Miller McPherson | 325 |
| 12. | Structures of Economic Interdependence
Among Nations
Ronald L. Breiger | 353 |
| | Index of Names | 381 |
| | Index of Subjects | 387 |
| | Notes on Contributors | 393 |