

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword, by Helen B. Taussig, M.D. | 3 |
| Preface | 5 |
| Preface to Second Edition | 7 |
| PART I. CHANGING ATTITUDES TOWARD DEATH AND DYING | |
| 1. Our New Power over Birth and Death: Framework for Discussion | 13 |
| 2. Changing Attitudes and the Need for New Solutions | 35 |
| PART II. HISTORICAL REVIEW OF THOUGHT AND ACTION ON EUTHANASIA | |
| 3. Thought on Euthanasia prior to 1930 | 53 |
| 4. The 1930's: Decade of Organized Action | 64 |
| 5. The 1940's: A Temporary Halt and Renewed Action | 87 |
| 6. The 1950's: Reaction and Support | 104 |
| 7. 1960 through Early 1974 | 139 |
| PART III. LEGALIZATION OF EUTHANASIA: ARGUMENTS AND PROPOSALS | |
| 8. What the Opponents Say | 217 |

| | |
|--|----------------|
| 9. Euthanasia: Justifications and Specifications | 232 |
| 10. Current Euthanasia Legislation and Proposals for Change | 252 |
| Appendix— | |
| Oath of Hippocrates | 285 |
| Petitions to Legislatures and United Nations | 286–288 |
| Legislative Proposals and Bills | 289–296 |
| The “Living Will” | 296 |
| Definitions of Death | 297–300 |
| Sources— | |
| References | 301–318 |
| Bibliography | 318–329 |
| Cases | 329–334 |
| Euthanasia Bills and Resolutions (see also p. 289–296) | 334–335 |
| Supplement to the First Edition: | |
| Developments from Early 1974 to late 1976 | 337–396 |
| Index | 397–413 |