

C O N T E N T S

Introduction: The American Dream Between Yesterday and Tomorrow	I
--	---

Part I. The Thesis

1. Decline of the United States: The Eagle Has Crash Landed	13
--	----

Part II. Multiple Rhetorics and Realities

2. The Twentieth Century: Darkness at Noon?	31
3. Globalization: A Long-Term Trajectory of the World-System	45
4. Racism: Our Albatross	69
5. Islam: Islam, the West, and the World	100
6. The Others: Who Are We? Who Are the Others?	124
7. Democracy: Rhetoric or Reality?	149
8. Intellectuals: Value-Neutrality in Question	170
9. America and the World: The Twin Towers as Metaphor	193

Part III. Where Are We Heading?

10. The Left, I: Theory and Praxis Once Again	219
11. The Left, II: An Age of Transition	249

[ix]

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 12. The Movements: What Does It Mean to Be an Antisystemic Movement Today? | 259 |
| 13. Geopolitical Cleavages of the Twenty-First
Century: What Future for The World? | 273 |

Afterwords:

- | | |
|----------------------|-----|
| 1. The Righteous War | 297 |
| 2. "Shock and Awe?" | 303 |

Permissions	309
--------------------	-----

Index	311
--------------	-----