

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction	1
HENK VAN NIEROP
'Totius Mundi Emporium': Antwerp as a Centre for Vernacular Bible Translations, 1523–1545	9
PAUL ARBLASTER
Protestant Conversions in an Age of Catholic Reformation: The Case of Sixteenth-Century Antwerp	33
GUIDO MARNEF
Imagines Peregrinantes. The International Genesis and Fate of two Biblical Picture Books (Hiël and Nadal) Conceived in Antwerp at the End of the Sixteenth Century	49
RALPH DEKONINCK
Justus Lipsius's Treatises on the Holy Virgin	65
JEANINE DE LANDTSHEER
The Religious Position of Abraham Ortelius	89
JASON HARRIS
The quandary of the Dutch Reformed church masters	141
MIA M. MOCHIZUKI
'A Serpent in the Bosom of Our Dear Fatherland'. Reformed Reaction to the Holland Mission in the Seventeenth Century	165
CHRISTINE KOOI
Obedience with an Attitude. Laity and Clergy in the Dutch Catholic Church of the Seventeenth Century	177
CHARLES H. PARKER

Remarkable Providences. The Dutch Reception of an English Collection of Protestant Wonder Stories	197
FRED VAN LIEBURG
From Minister to Sacred Orator. Homiletics and Rhetoric in the Seventeenth and Early Eighteenth Century Dutch Republic	221
P.J. SCHUFFEL
'Ardens Martyrii Desiderium'. On the Martyrdom of Anna Maria van Schurman (1607–1678)	247
PIETA VAN BEEK
Cornelis van Bynkershoek and Religion. Reflexions of a Critical Mind in The Hague in 1699 and his Reactions to Crossroads of Religious Beliefs	267
J.J.V.M. DE VET
L'âme amante de son Dieu by Madame Guyon (1717). Pure Love between Antwerp, Paris and Amsterdam, at the Crossroads of Orthodoxy and Heterodoxy	297
AGNÈS GUIDERDONI-BRUSLÉ
Notes on the Editors of this Volume	319
List of Contributors	321
Index Nominum	325