

Contents

List of tables	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: theoretical framework and plan of the book	1
PART I MOBILITY AND ITS REGULATION
1 Irregular migration and mobility in economic theory	15
2 Mobility and migration in the European Union	36
3 Irregular migration, labour markets and social protection	54
PART II THE UK AS A CASE STUDY
4 Why they come	79
5 How they survive	112
6 The role of support organisations	150
PART III THE RESPONSE OF THE RECEIVING SOCIETY
7 Internal controls and enforcement: immigration authorities and the police	171
8 Irregular migration and the public services	198
9 Recruitment of labour from abroad	217
10 In search of global justice	235
Bibliography	256
Index	277