

Table of Contents

Introduction	5
 Chapter 1
Name Theory and Etymology
1.1. Status and Function of Name	13
1.2. Scientific and Ancient Etymology	27
Comparisons and Contrasts
 Chapter 2
Ancient Poetic Etymology
Homeric Poetry	34
2.1. Paronomasia	35
2.2. Epexegesis and Analysis of words	37
Clustering of Cognates
2.3. Narrativization and Contextualization of Etymology	57
2.4. Transference of Etymology	60
2.5. Rearticulation and Resignification of Proper Names	66
2.6. Reversal of Etymology or Unnaming	80
2.7. Διόνυμον or δῖωνυμία. Divine and Human language	89
Lyric Poetry
2.8. Iambic Poetry – Archilochus	97
2.9. Choral Lyric – Alcman, Stesichorus	98
2.10. Pindar	101
Conclusions
	104
 Chapter 3
Pelops and his Name - Literary Tradition
3.1. Modern Scientific Etymology	109
3.2. Polios in Homer	114
3.3. Polios / Pelios in the Scholiasts and Lexicographers	116
3.4. Pelops in Plato	119
3.5. Pelops in Homer	125
3.6. Pelops in Pindar	128
3.7. Pelops and Iamus in Pindar	154
3.8. Pelops in Tragedy	165
3.9. Pelops in Comedy	173
3.10. Pelops in Post-classical Poetry	174
3.11. Pelops in Art	181
 Chapter 4
Fathers and Sons
4.1. Tantalus	185

Table of Contents

4.1.2.	Tantalus in Plato	185
4.1.3.	Tantalus in Homer	187
4.1.4.	Tantalus in Pindar and later Poetry	189
4.2.	Oenomaus.....	198
4.2.1.	Modern Etymology	198
4.2.2.	Oinos and memaa in Ancient Thought	200
4.2.3.	Oenomaus in the Ancient Literary Tradition	202
4.2.4.	Oenomaus in Art	205
4.3.	Atreus	205
4.4.	Agamemnon	207
4.5.	Menelaus	211
4.6.	Orestes	216
	Conclusions	222
	Bibliography.....	227
	Index of Names and Subjects	236
	Index Locorum	247