

Contents

Introduction to *Agreement on Demand:
Consumer Theory in the Twentieth Century* 1
PHILIP MIROWSKI AND D. WADE HANDS

Part 1. Disagreement on Demand: Studies in Early-Twentieth-Century Stabilization of Demand Theory

The Other Economics Department: Demand and Value Theory in Early Agricultural Economics 9
H. SPENCER BANZHAF

Disaggregating the Components of the Hicks-Allen Composite Commodity 32
MANUEL FERNANDEZ-GRELA

Complementarity and Demand Theory:
From the 1920s to the 1940s 48
JEAN-SÉBASTIEN LENFANT

Jean Ville's Contribution to the Integrability Debate:
The Mystery of a Lost Theorem 86
FRANÇOIS GARDES AND PIERRE GARROUSTE

Aggregation and Estimation in the Theory of Demand 106
JOHN S. CHIPMAN

More Fiber Than Thread? Evidence on the Mirowski-Hands Yarn 130

J. DANIEL HAMMOND

Integrability, Rationalizability, and Path-Dependency in the History of Demand Theory 153

D. WADE HANDS

Part 2. Agreement on Demand:
Mid-Twentieth-Century Walrasian Theory

Disequilibrium Dynamics and Aggregate Excess Demand:
On a Homunculus Fallacy in Economic Theory 189

MAARTEN PIETER SCHINKEL

Rolf Mantel and the Computability of General Equilibria:
On the Origins of the Sonnenschein-Mantel-Debreu Theorem 213

FERNANDO TOHMÉ

The Sonnenschein-Mantel-Debreu Results after Thirty Years 228

S. ABU TURAB RIZVI

Demand Theory and General Equilibrium: From Explanation to Introspection, a Journey down the Wrong Road 246

ALAN KIRMAN

Part 3. Demand Goes Transcendental: Some Modern Issues

Mechanism Design Theory Embodying an Algorithm-Centered
Vision of Markets/Organizations/Institutions 283

KYU SANG LEE

The Tricks of the (No-)Trade (Theorem) 305

ESTHER-MIRJAM SENT

Economic Theory: Structural Abstraction or Behavioral Reduction? 322

SHYAM SUNDER

Twelve Theses concerning the History of Postwar Neoclassical Price Theory 343

PHILIP MIROWSKI

Contributors 381

Index 385