

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1. Dissent: Wesley to Blake | 17 |
| Old Dissent | 19 |
| Evangelical Dissent | 22 |
| Methodism | 30 |
| Dissenting Academies | 36 |
| Blake | 42 |
| 2. Unitarianism: Priestley to Gaskell | 52 |
| ‘Anti-Trinitarianism’ | 54 |
| A Society of Friends | 60 |
| A Common Good | 64 |
| ‘New’ Unitarianism | 70 |
| ‘Early Feminists’ | 76 |
| 3. The Oxford Movement: Wordsworth to Hopkins | 87 |
| Beginnings | 90 |
| Beliefs and Ideas | 92 |
| Poetry | 100 |
| Ritualism | 106 |
| 4. Evangelicalism: Brontë to Eliot | 120 |
| Identity | 122 |
| Cultural (Dis)Engagement | 127 |
| People of the Word | 130 |
| Preaching, Revivalism, and Conversion | 136 |
| Temptation, Fallen Women, and Judgement | 141 |
| 5. Secularization: Dickens to Hardy | 152 |
| Materialism | 156 |
| Immanent Theology and the Rise of the Social Gospel | 161 |
| Urban Prophets | 168 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Religion, Modernity, and the Public Sphere | 174 |
| Freethinking, Blasphemy, and the Rewriting of Religion | 177 |
| 6. Catholicism and Mysticism: Huysmans to Chesterton | 189 |
| Taking Catholicism Seriously | 192 |
| The Book of Nature and the Sacramental Universe | 199 |
| Mysticism versus Religion | 206 |
| Bibliography | 217 |
| Index | 235 |