Contents

Introduction 1

PART I: Institutional Study and Its Boundaries

1 Political Institutions and Social Power: Conceptual Explorations 9

   Claus Offe

2 Power and Political Institutions 32

   Terry M. Moe

3 Practical Institutionalism 72

   John Ferejohn

4 Which Comes First, the Ideas or the Institutions? 91

   Rogers M. Smith

5 Public Policies as Institutions 114

   Paul Pierson

PART II: Institutional Structure and Political Change

6 Institutions and Social Change: The Evolution of Vocational Training in Germany 135

   Kathleen Thelen
Contents

7 When Does Politics Create Policy?
The Organizational Politics of Change 171
Margaret Weir

8 Lineages of the Rube Goldberg State:
Building and Blurring Public Programs, 1900–1940 187
Elisabeth S. Clemens

9 Government Institutions, Policy Cartels, and Policy Change 216
R. Kent Weaver

PART III: Institutions and Democracy

10 Institutions for Implementing Constitutional Law 241
Mark Tushnet

11 Beyond Rational Self-interest: Authors and Actors
in French Constitution-Making 260
Jon Elster

12 Preserving the “Dignity and Influence of the Court”:
Political Supports for Judicial Review in the United States 283
Keith E. Whittington

13 The Significance of Cognitive and Moral Learning
for Democratic Institutions 303
Ulrich K. Preuss

About the Contributors 323
About the Editors 327
Index 329