

CONTENTS

Foreword (Helen K. Bond)	xi
Preface	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction The Most Popular Story in the Gospels	1
1. The Inquiry of this Book	2
2. Methodological Notes on Constructing the Question.....	5
Chapter One A History of Research on John 8.6, 8	11
1. Previous Assessments of John 8.6, 8.....	11
1.1. Scriptural Intertextual Interpretations of John 8.6, 8 ...	12
1.2. Miscellaneous Other Interpretations of John 8.6, 8	15
2. A New Direction	21
3. History of Research Conclusion.....	26
Chapter Two Speaking of Writing: καταγράφω and γράφω in Hellenistic, Jewish, and New Testament Contexts	27
1. καταγράφω Diachronically	28
2. καταγράφω Synchronically	31
2.1. Diodorus Siculus	31
2.2. Strabo.....	32
2.3. Plutarch.....	32
2.4. The Oxyrhynchus Papyri	33
2.5. Flavius Josephus	38
2.6. LXX	38
3. γράφω in the NT	49
3.1. γράφω in the Perfect Tense in the NT	50
3.2. Non-Formulaic Uses of γράφω in the NT.....	50
4. Conclusion	52
Chapter Three Writing and Gradations of Literacy	53
1. The Literacy Landscape: Languages and Gradations	54
1.1. Polyglot Societies	56

1.2. Gradations of Literacy	56
2. Reading and Writing in Literate Education	62
2.1. Writing in Greco-Roman Egypt.....	65
2.2. Writing in Roman Palestine	70
2.3. Writing in the Early Church.....	79
3. Summary	89
Chapter Four Scribal Literacy in the New Testament World:
The Scribes (and Pharisees) as Text-Brokers	95
1. A Fourth Complexity: Scribal Literacy	97
1.1. Definitions	97
1.2. The Brokering of Texts	99
2. Scribes and Grapho-Literacy.....	103
2.1. Scribes as Professional Writers	103
2.2. Some Professional Writers as Torah Experts	104
3. The Scribes (and Pharisees) as Text-Brokers in the NT.....	107
3.1. Scribes as (Non-)Copyists in the NT	107
3.2. ‘The Scribes and the Pharisees’ and Other Groups.....	110
4. Summary and Conclusions	116
Chapter Five The Pericope Adulterae at John 7.53–8.11: The
Location	119
1. John 7.53–8.11 is the Majority Location for PA.....	121
2. John 7.53–8.11 is the Earliest Demonstrable Location for
PA.....	122
2.1. The Manuscript Evidence	123
2.2. The Patristic Evidence	126
3. The Impact of the Lectionary System	130
3.1. Knowledge of GJohn with and without PA in Early
Christianity	131
3.2. Scribal Confusion	133
3.3. Lectionary Influence	135
4. Summary and Conclusion.....	139
Chapter Six The Pericope Adulterae at John 7.53–8.11: The
Preceding Context of John 7	141
1. Who is Jesus?: The Johannine Characters’ Apprehension
of Jesus’ Identity.....	143
1.1. Who is Jesus?: The Answer of the Crowd.....	144
1.2. Who is Jesus?: The Answer of the Jewish Leadership ...	145

2. Moses, the Law, and Right Judgment	147
3. Education and the Problem of a Galilean Origin	150
3.1. 'How does this man know letters?' (John 7.15)	152
3.2. 'Surely the Christ is not going to come from Galilee' (John 7.41)	158
3.3. 'No prophet arises out of Galilee' (John 7.52)	158
4. Summary of John 7	159
Chapter Seven The Pericope Adulterae at John 7.53–8.11: The
Narrative	161
1. The Narrative of John 7.53–8.11	161
2. Summary of PA	173
Chapter Eight The Pericope Adulterae at John 7.53–8.11: The
(Divine) Grapho-Literacy of Jesus	175
1. John 8.6, 8: Jesus, Moses, and the Writing of the Decalogue	175
1.1. The Writing of the Decalogue (Exodus 32.15–16 LXX)	176
1.2. The Writing on the Ground (John 8.6, 8)	181
2. Further Resonances between PA and GJohn	190
2.1. Jesus' Superiority to Moses	191
2.2. Double Meanings	196
2.3. Jesus and the Johannine Trial	197
2.4. The Importance of Textuality	199
3. Summary and Conclusion	201
Chapter Nine The Historical Context for the Insertion of the
Pericope Adulterae into the Gospel of John: A Proposal	203
1. The Evidence Concerning PA's Insertion	204
1.1. The terminus ad quem for Johannine Insertion—380's CE	204
1.2. Other and Earlier (Non-Johannine?) Citations of PA	205
1.3. PA in the Early Church—a Paradigm of Jesus	210
1.4. Summary of Evidence Concerning PA's Insertion into GJohn	213
2. Previous Assessments of PA's Insertion	214
2.1. A Socio-Historical Answer—the Suppression Theory	214
2.2. Text-Critical Answers	220
3. The Context for the Insertion of a Grapho-Literate Jesus	223
3.1. Pagan Criticisms of Christian Illiteracy	224
3.2. The Christian Response	227
4. Conclusion and Further Considerations on Date	249

4.1. Increasingly Overt Portrayals of a Literate Jesus	251
4.2. The Affinity between Knowledge of PA in GJohn and Knowledge of Jesus' Writing.....	252
4.3. The Possibility that PA First Entered GJohn in a Latin-Influenced Environment	252
Conclusion The Pericope Adulterae in the Early Church	257
Bibliography	261
Index of Ancient Sources.....	291
Index of Authors.....	307
Index of Subjects	317