

CONTENTS

Foreword by Basil H. Johnston	vii
Acknowledgements and Permissions	xvii
INTRODUCTION	3
1. ACCULTURATION THROUGH EDUCATION The Inherent Limits of 'Assimilationist' Policy	11
2. READING RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL Native Literary Theory and the Survival Narrative	31
3. "WE HAVE BEEN SILENT TOO LONG" Linguistic Play in Anthony Apakark Thrasher's Prison Writings	59
4. "ANALYZE, IF YOU WISH, BUT LISTEN" The Affirmatist Literary Methodology of Rita Joe	101
5. FROM TRICKSTER POETICS TO TRANSGRESSIVE POLITICS Substantiating Survivanace in Tomson Highway's Kiss of the Fur Queen	137
CONCLUSION Creative Interventions in the Residential School Legacy	175
Endnotes	183
Bibliography	221
Index	235