

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Preface                         | xviii     |
| 1 Institutional capitalism      | 1  |
| One capitalism, not many        | 3         |
| Impersonal order                | 8         |
| The institutional system        | 14        |
| Institutional domains           | 17        |
| Interactive subsystems          | 21        |
| The precapitalist state         | 25        |
| Informality or formality?       | 28        |
| Looking ahead                   | 33        |
| 2 The modern state              | 36 |
| Weberian theory                 | 37        |
| Parametric state                | 40        |
| State and economy               | 43        |
| Formality of state              | 45        |
| Ideal procedural norms          | 48        |
| Legal regulatory function       | 51        |
| Service function                | 55        |
| Representational function       | 58        |
| Dysfunctions of state closure   | 63        |
| Representational dysfunction    | 67        |
| Constrained state effectiveness | 70        |
| Separation of powers            | 77        |
| State, law, and politics        | 80        |

|          |                                      |     |
|----------|--------------------------------------|-----|
| 3 | Law and economy               | 83  |
|          | Proto-institutional ethic     | 84  |
|          | Evolution of norms            | 88  |
|          | Enforcement of rules          | 91  |
|          | Property and contract         | 94  |
|          | Economic reasons of law       | 100 |
|          | Transitional law              | 104 |
|          | Economy, law, and politics    | 108 |
| 4 | Development in disequilibrium | 111 |
|          | A typology of change          | 112 |
|          | Institutions: made or grown?  | 114 |
|          | Schumpeter's innovation       | 120 |
|          | Institutional innovation      | 131 |
|          | Equilibrium routines          | 133 |
|          | Disequilibrium transitions    | 137 |
|          | Disequilibrium routines       | 148 |
| 5 | Carriers of change            | 153 |
|          | Free to choose?               | 156 |
|          | Transcending culture          | 161 |
|          | The power of ideology         | 167 |
|          | Intellectual resistance       | 173 |
|          | Switching tracks              | 178 |
|          | Rational choices              | 186 |
|          | Constructive ideology         | 195 |
| 6 | Models of crisis              | 199 |
|          | Development crises            | 200 |
|          | Activist transition           | 205 |
|          | A critique of neoactivism     | 214 |
|          | Neoliberal transition         | 223 |
|          | Lessons of neoliberalism      | 236 |
| 7 | The transition sequence       | 240 |
|          | Policy priorities             | 240 |
|          | A crisis-induced sequence     | 247 |
|          | Putting law first             | 251 |
|          | Building the service state    | 260 |

8 Making the change

274

Bibliography

289

Index

299