

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations and Conventions	x
Introduction	1
Part I Clare's Disorganized Religion: A Context For Belief
1 'still I reverence the church': Clare and the Established Faith	11
The Parish: Structure and Genesis	11
The Parish and the Failings of the Early Nineteenth-Century Church	15
Politics and Religion	21
Clerical Matters and Clerical Men: the Reality of Clare's Parish	26
2 'I have joind the Ranters': Alternative Denominations and Groups	35
Methodism and Dissent	35
Methodism and Enthusiasm	40
Clare's Methodism	45
Denominational Diversity	53
3 'he sets his face against all mention of fairies': 'Alternative Beliefs' and Evangelical Zeal	57
'Village Faith': Living Suspiciously	59
Literary Pressures and Biblical Sanction	69
Clare's Ghosts	73
Clare and the Anglican Evangelicals	79
4 'Learning is your only wealth': Reading and Reasoning	85
Literacy, Religion and Radicalism	86
Clare's 'Religious' Reading	90
The Literature of Letters	99
Reason and Reasoning	104
5 'faiths 'lumind scroll': Clare and the Scriptures	113
Clare and the Bible	113
Scripture as Literary Influence: The Biblical Paraphrases	118

Part 2 Clare's Subjective Faith

6	'There is a language wrote on earth & sky / By Gods own pen': The Sublime Experience of God	133
	Sublimity and Enthusiasm	134
	Aspects of the Sublime: Language, Mystery and the Natural World	141
7	'long evanish'd scene': Eden and Eternity as Patterns for Faith	151
	Clare's Eden	152
	Eden and 'Knowledge'	157
	Eternity	162
8	'There is a cruelty in all': Challenges to Faith	173
	Evil and Cruelty	173
	Knowledge, Vulnerability and Culpability	180
	Clare's Theodicy	188
9	'a power that governs with justice': The Tenets of Clare's Faith	195
	Clare's God	196
	Clare's Creed	206
	Conclusion: 'Child Harold'	213
	Bibliography	225
	Index	245