

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Why Another Book about Muhammad Ali?	1
PART I Louisville Sponsoring Group
Louisville's Favorite Son: The Professional Debut	7
Choosing Management: The Courtship of Cassius Clay	14
The Early Bouts, 1961–1962	29
Clay vs. Moore: The Seminal Text	40
The Most Hated Man in Boxing? The Early Bouts, 1963	49
Damage Control through Moral Authority: The Louisville Sponsoring Group's Specialty	62
The Relationship between Cassius Clay and the Louisville Sponsoring Group: A Summary	67
The Commercial Elements of Clay-Liston I	80

PART II Nation of Islam

Main Bout Inc.: How Commerce Affects Culture	93
Carving Out Moral Authority: Ali's Race Man Phase	120

PART III Good People

Forty Years of Ali: The Making of an Icon	137
The Legacy of Ali's Exile and the Nation of Islam	139
The Prodigal Son Returns	148
King of the World: The Consequences of Monarchy	154
Death of a Salesman	160
Lonnie Ali: The Savior	164
Thomas Hauser: The Literary Rehabilitation of Ali's Legend	167
Olympic Torch: From Literature to Television	175
Beyond Moral Authority: The Apotheosis of Muhammad Ali	182
Culture Meets Commerce: The Muhammad Ali Center, Naming Rights, and the Price of Moral Authority	186
The Backlash: Exploring Contradictory Meanings of Ali	194
Notes	199
Index	229