CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES/ix

FOREWORD/xi
James R. Kincaid

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS/xiii

INTRODUCTION/xv
Marlene Tromp, Pamela K. Gilbert, and Aeron Haynie

I. Lady Audley's Secret

1. Enclosure Acts: Framing Women's Bodies in Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret/3
   Elizabeth Langland

2. Braddon's Commentaries on the Trials and Legal Secrets of Audley Court/17
   Gail Turley Houston

3. Rebellious Sepoys and Bigamous Wives: The Indian Mutiny and Marriage Law Reform in Lady Audley's Secret/31
   Lillian Nayder

4. Marketing Sensation: Lady Audley's Secret and Consumer Culture/43
   Katherine Montwieler
5. "An idle handle that was never turned, and a lazy rope so rotten": The Decay of the Country Estate in Lady Audley’s Secret /63
Aeron Haynie

II. Aurora Floyd

6. The Espaliered Girl: Pruning the Docile Body in Aurora Floyd /77
Jeni Curtis

7. The Dangerous Woman: M. E. Braddon’s Sensational (En)gendering of Domestic Law/93
Marlene Tromp

III. Braddon in the Literary Marketplace

8. Mary Elizabeth Braddon in Australia: Queen of the Colonies/111
Toni Johnson-Woods

9. “Our Author”: Braddon in the Provincial Weeklies/127
Jennifer Carnell and Graham Law

10. Misalliance: M. E. Braddon’s Writing for the Stage/165
Heidi J. Holder

IV. Genre and Culture

11. Braddon and Victorian Realism: Joshua Haggard’s Daughter/183
Pamela K. Gilbert

12. Fiction Becomes Her: Representations of Female Character in Mary Braddon’s The Doctor’s Wife /187
Tabitha Sparks
13. “Go and Marry Your Doctor”: Fetishism and “Redundance” at the Fin de Siècle and the Vampires of “Good Lady Ducayne”/211

Lauren M. E. Goodlad

14. Spectral Politics: M. E. Braddon and the Spirits of Social Reform/235

Eve M. Lynch

15. Electra-fying the Female Sleuth: Detecting the Father in Eleanor’s Victory and Thou Art the Man/255

Heidi H. Johnson

AFTERWORD/277

Lyn Pykett

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY/281

CONTRIBUTORS/287

INDEX/291